

A Great Self Storage Facility and More Conveniently located in Stamford, CT

JB Moving Services Inc. is proud to present a new addition to the JB family of services: our brand new state-of-the art 20,000 square foot self storage building located in Stamford, CT!

Our Self Storage facility was created to allow our Stamford area customers the ability to access their Self Storage at any time. Our Self Storage facility boasts over 120 self storage rooms which are climate controlled and equipped with state of the art security.

JB Self Storage will also provide other services such as packing, shipping and crating, as well as an area to purchase used items, which include household and commercial furniture.

Ask a JB Self Storage expert which of our units will be best for your needs.
